Newspapers keep us constantly in touch with the whole of mankind. In old days, a man's world was limited to his own village and one or two neighbouring villages. It was difficult for him to know what was going on in other parts of the country. But today the press, assisted by rapid means of communication, brings us news from the farthest corners of the globe. The press is also responsible for educating the public opinion. The laws of a nation are really shaped by its press. In fact, the public receives guidance from the newspapers. Thus, their power in modern times is undeniable.

Questions:

(i) What good do the newspapers do to us?
(ii) Why in older days could a man not know what was going on in far off places?
(iii) What is the responsibility of the press today?
(iv) How are the laws of a country shaped nowadays?
